

Check List

1	A correspondent must be a submitter. In case of co-correspondents, the representative correspondent has to be the submitter.
2	Font of the main text is Times New Roman of 11 pt size.
3	Abstract is less than 250 words
4	Running title (less than 45 characters including spaces and punctuation) is provided.
5	Key words (less than 5) are provided (should be inserted on the submission step).
6	References are in the correct style.
7	Tables and figures are provided in separate files.
8	Figures are separated from figure legends.
9	Figure resolutions are higher than 300 dpi.
10	Figures are at their actual (print) size.
11	Cover letter has been prepared (should be inserted on the submission step) Here, you may include the list of potential reviewers or of excluded ones
12	Title page and the rest of the manuscript text are prepared separately in two files (not combined together). Table and figure files are prepared separately.